Sophia Peace Center

SPC is located on top of a breathtaking mesa, surrounded by the San Juan mountain ranges. During any season of the year, you will be immersed in the beauty of the Southwest with rolling wildflower meadows and glorious mountain sunsets. All year round, our location, facility, and staff offer you the opportunity to design and create your special day as a celebration of your loving union.

Indoor & Outdoor Spaces

The stunningly elegant log cabin-style lodge has vaulted aspen ceilings, a beautiful reception and dining space, giant stone fireplace, spiraled entrance staircase, spacious dance floor, full-service bar, guest rooms, and exceptional cuisine. Our Grand Room can accommodate 104 guests, while the picturesque grounds of the Sophia Peace Center can accommodate 250 guests for a catered tent event. Both on-site massage and full day spa packages are available for the bride, the groom, and their guests upon prior request.

"I cannot express how wonderful our wedding was and I am truly thankful for finding you."

~Jackie Martin (2007)

Location & Activities

The Sophia Peace Center is located on the Mesa above Dolores, in the Four Corners area, marking the intersection between Utah, Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico. We are 50 minutes northwest of Durango, 1.25 hours southwest of Telluride and 15 minutes north of Cortez.

“An oasis of extraordinary beauty.”

Golfing, kayaking, expert mountain biking, hiking, historical train rides, scenic drives, Native American dances, horseback riding, Hovenweep National Monument, Crow Canyon Archaeological Center, Ute Mountain Tribal Park, McPhee Reservoir, and the San Juan National Forest are all close by. Mesa Verde National Park offers a spectacular look into the lives of the Ancestral Pueblo people who made it their home over 700 years ago, with over 4,000 archeological sites and 600 cliff dwellings.
