

HISTORY

Homesteaded at the turn of the 20th Century, the Mabery Ranch is nestled along the bank of the Verde River and in the shadow of pre-historic Sinaguan ruins.

For nearly half a century, before becoming an entertainment venue, the Mabery family farmed the land and for the past two decades have hosted thousands of guests for their dinner and show, providing visitors and residents alike with memories to last a lifetime.

The authentically replicated Western town, surrounded by Arizona's scenic Dead Horse Ranch State Park, features an abundance of attractions and activities that are sure to delight and entertain!

Don't miss a visit to the Blazin' M Ranch, where "happy trails" are just the beginning...

ACTIVITIES

Try your hand at the shooting gallery with a real Colt .45 using wax bullets.

Rope a stationary steer with lessons from one of our resident cowpokes.

Hop aboard our vintage tractor pull and take a ride to learn a bit about our ranch history and visit our farm animals out in the field. Dress up in a saloon ensemble, dead-eye gunslinger garb or lacy Victorian regalia for a keepsake photo of your frontier experience. Take in the one-of-a-kind in the world Wood 'n' West Gallery and visit our unique gift shops located along the boardwalk. Belly up to the bar in the Copper Spur Saloon, featuring sarsaparilla, local wines, microbrews and specialty drinks that are sure to whet any wrangler's whistle.

CHUCKWAGON DINNER

When the dinner bell rings, feast in rustic splendor, rain or shine, in a climate-controlled barn with seating for up to 280 guests! Enjoy the best chicken and ribs in Arizona, along with all the fixin's, served chuckwagon style on tin plates and cups.
