

Historical Interpretive Signs designed and made possible by the Colchester Historical Society, The O'Connor Foundation with matching funds from Colchester Township, The Downsville Women's Club, Downsville Lions Club, and individual donors.

Design and Sign Placement - Travis Kinch Woodworx

The mission of the Historical Society is of promote the rich heritage to the town of Colchester, New York.

To make a tax deductible contribution or to request additional information, please contact:
The Colchester Historical Society
P.O. Box 12,
Downsville, NY 13755
www.colchesterhistoricalsociety.org

E-mail and feedback on signs to:
info@colchesterhistoricalsociety.org

Colchester's Historical Interpretive Signs Driving Tour

Tour the Historic towns that makeup Colchester:

Downsville, Colchester, Corbett, Shinhopple, Gregorytown, Horton and Cooks Falls.

Drive the route for roadside history lessons about the people, places and industries that make up our rich heritage.

COLCHESTER HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Downsville, NY 13755

