The Crowsnest Pass Bear Smart Association For 11 years, this amazing group based out of the Crowsnest Pass and directed by Fish and Wildlife have been working with the community to minimize human/wildlife conflicts. The volunteers are trained and certified by Fish and Wildlife Officers and are passionate about saving bears and people from negative encounters. Please join us to hear their story and find out how you can keep yourself and bears safe!

Saturday, Aug. 12, 8 p.m.

An evening with Alberta Park Rangers. Ever wondered what a Conservation Officer does? Want to know what it takes to get a job as a Conservation Officer or Park Ranger? Come by and bring some questions for two Park Rangers, officer Clarke and officer Krahn, who will spend their evening talking about their job, motivations, and experiences working with Alberta Parks. Come with your research complete on Alberta Parks and you may win a prize!

Saturday, Aug. 19, 8 p.m.

Karelian Bear Dogs in SW Alberta Join award winning District Fish and Wildlife Officer, John Clarke and his service dog, Koda, as he shares the stories of bringing the first Karelian Bear dogs into Alberta and the work this innovative bear program accomplished. How can dogs bred to hunt bears, save a bear and keep humans safe? Join the talk, and meet a bear dog in person!

Saturday, Aug. 26, 8 p.m.

Alberta Community Bat Program, Mike Kelly Wildlife Biologist and Coordinator Mike is joining us to share everything you wanted to know about bats, or at least, everything he wanted you to know about bats! If you think bats are scary, it's probably because you haven't had an opportunity to learn about how awesome they are. In this interactive talk, bat diversity, biology, and unmatched awesomeness will be the topic of discussion, (with great photo's as well!).

Saturday, Sept 2., 8 p.m.

Living with Grizzlies. Charlie Russell, author and documentary maker, back by popular demand! Charlie, a native of SW Alberta, shares his experience living close to grizzlies both here and in Kamchatka Peninsula in Russia. Charlie's books and documentaries are known throughout the world. Don't miss this season finale of Beauvais Speaker Series.

Thank you to the Beauvais Lake Cottage Association for their support of the series!
