*Gracious Lodging
in Camden, Maine*

Experience the pleasures of Hawthorn Inn's premier Camden, Maine location throughout all the seasons. Whether you're looking for a romantic getaway, outdoor activities in the beautiful Camden area or a base to explore other coastal Maine attractions from Freeport to Acadia and Bar Harbor, the Hawthorn Inn is a perfect match for your needs. 🌿 CamdenHawthorn.com

In the morning, enjoy two-course breakfasts in our bright dining room and library or outside in our sun-drenched gardens during the mild seasons. We are happy to modify recipes or provide alternate selections to accommodate your food allergies or dietary restrictions. Our goal is to provide you with memorable breakfasts without driving you away from your healthy routines.

After breakfast, relax in our gardens with a good book, experience the many and varied local sites and activities or explore other coastal attractions north or south of Camden.

Walk through our backyard gate and you're a mere 180 steps from Camden's picturesque harbor's and stunning water view. Camden's outdoor amphitheater, a popular wedding venue, is only 100 steps from our gate making the Hawthorn Inn the most convenient lodging choice for those weddings. From there, you can continue through beautiful Harbor Park to explore the shops and eateries downtown.

Enjoy the Outdoors Year-Round

If you'd like some exercise or want to get closer to nature, you can hike or drive to the top of Mount Battie and be rewarded with exhilarating views. Other Camden activities include biking, kayaking, standup paddle boarding, schooner tours and lobster boat trips.

In the fall, folks flock to Camden to view the brilliant fall foliage. Camden's glorious winter provides opportunities for snow shoeing, cross country skiing, downhill skiing and ice skating.

Local Events

There are local events that will also provide great memories for you. Some of the most popular include Rockland's Lobster Fest, Camden's Harbor Arts Festivals, Christmas by the Sea and Winterfest which features the National Toboggan Championships. And, nearby Dam- ariscotta's fall Pumpkin Festival is just amazing!

We emphasize fresh produce rather than processed ingredients and buy local and organic produce when available.

We love to enjoy that view from the top of Mount Battie. Take the short drive and experience it for yourself!
