

Dining

Something for Every Taste...

Although Maine lobster reigns on most menus, it doesn't stand alone. Casual dining options are always within reach and the choices are endless. There are also the options of dining on the beach, sitting outside at a picturesque spot at sunset, or the more formal sit-down meals in chef-owned restaurants showcasing creative and unique cuisine. And don't forget our favorite breakfast spots, or our brew pubs, sporting the latest in local micro-brews and the ever-popular hard ciders.
