

Maine Motorcoach Update for 2024

Maine is ready to welcome the group industry with warm hospitality, scenic vistas, and a wealth of opportunities for groups to enjoy the depth and breadth of what makes Maine special. The following is only a sampling of Maine lodging, dining and entertainment options.

What's New in Maine

New visitor center at Katahdin Woods and Waters National Monument will tell the story of the region through the eyes of Native Americans. The center is now under construction and slated to open spring of 2024 is named "Tekakapimk" from the Penobscot Indian language meaning "as far as one can see."

The Oceanarium in Bar Harbor has reopened after a five-year hiatus with upgraded exhibits and a refurbished interior. The three buildings include a visitor's center and gift shop, a former lobster hatchery hosting marine-related exhibits and an Aquaria building with indoor tanks of live sea creatures from the Gulf of Maine.

Height of Land, perched beside Route 17 in Western Maine, offers you an expansive look at the sprawling Rangeley Lakes region and the mountains beyond. On the Rangeley Lakes Scenic Byway, has been declared one of the finest in the state, if not New England.
