Aroostook County, Maine is known as “The County” possibly because once you’ve experienced it, you will not forget it! Aroostook is the largest county east of the Mississippi and is the size of the states of Connecticut and Rhode Island combined.

Outdoor recreation in the County is beyond compare. Annual snowfall here averages over seven feet and there are over 2,300 miles of groomed snowmobile trails available.

The City of Presque Isle is the “hub” of Aroostook County boasting an international airport, three institutions of higher learning, a large medical facility and much more.
