

TRIP IDEA:	GARDENS & LANDSCAPES	So Paris and Norway Maine Lakes & Mountains Region	Maine
-------------------	---------------------------------	---	--------------

MORNING

McLaughlin Garden: South Paris

In 1936 Bernard McLaughlin began planting what would become one of Maine's most beloved gardens. A century-old Maine farmstead with massive stonewalls and huge barn provided a unique background for his sophisticated collection of trees, woody shrubs, and perennials. There is a wonderful garden gift shop and many programs and events.

NOON

Lunch at Cafe Nomad on historic Main Street in Downtown Norway, a must! There's free Wi-Fi too.

AFTERNOON

Roberts Farm Preserve: Norway

This former farm is now part of the Western Foothills Land Trust. There are many trails for year-round activities.

See what's growing or cooking at Pietree Orchard in Sweden.

DAY'S END

Celebration Barn Theater

Saturday evening shows all summer long at this international center of performing arts. Check the schedule.

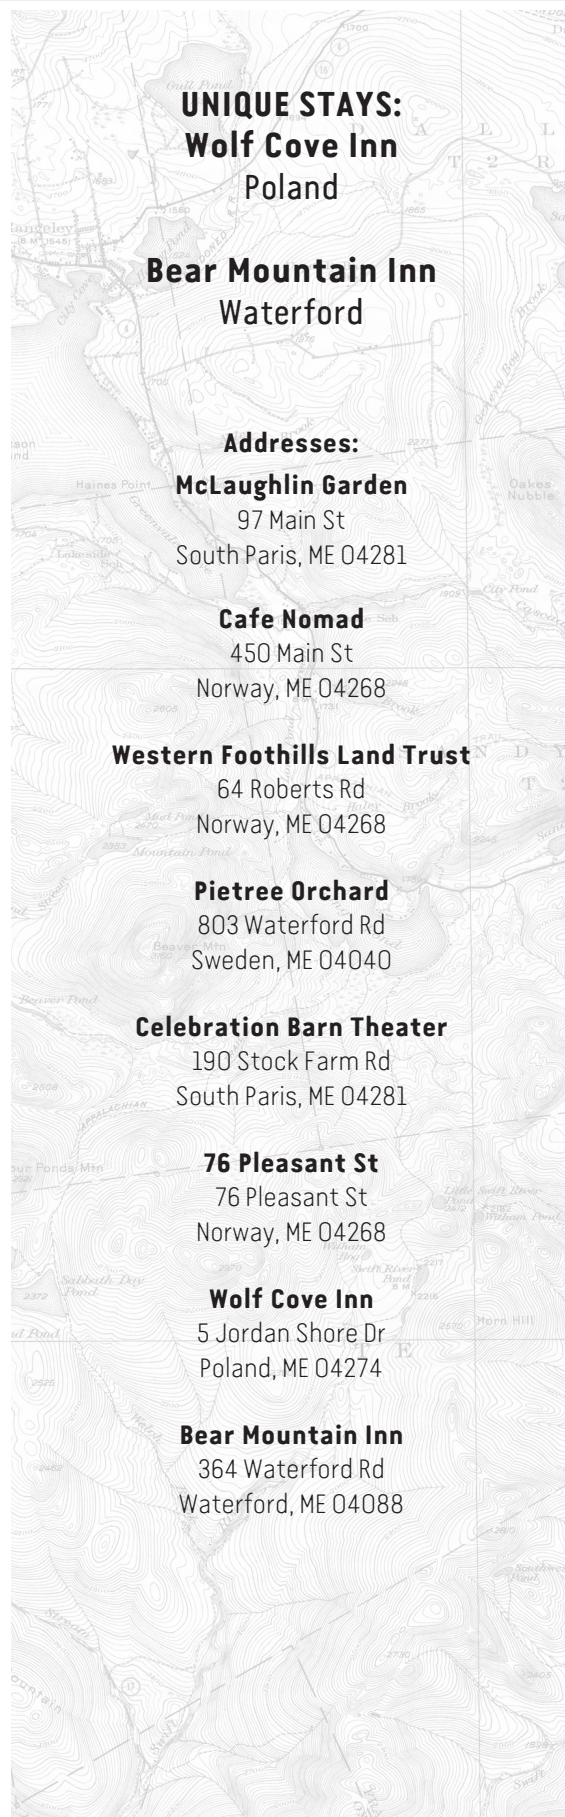

Historic Paris Hill

Listed in the National Register of Historic Places

Take a step back in time, drive or walk the Paris Hill loop. There is a wonderful annual home and garden tour that takes place here.
